Authorization to Deduct Educational Expenses

In order to expedite processing of your financial aid disbursements, with your authorization Florida State College at Jacksonville (FSCJ) will deduct from financial aid the following educationally related charges (if applicable) for all semesters of your enrollment:

- tuition and fees
- library fines
- monies owed for a prior semester within the same academic year (if funds are available)
- monies owed from a prior academic year (if funds are available). FSCJ will deduct a maximum of $200 from current year Title IV funds to pay a prior year's balance. FSCJ will deduct funds from other sources up to the amount of your past balance.
- short term loans
- bookstore charges
- parking fines
- miscellaneous fees

I understand that I am responsible for payment in full of charges that I incur at FSCJ. If my financial aid is reduced, terminated, or otherwise insufficient to pay charges, I will pay the remaining balance by the due date. Failure to remit payment will result in a restriction from further registration, withholding of academic transcripts and diplomas, and my debt will be forwarded to a collection agency and collection costs of up to 30% will be assessed.

I understand that if I do not wish to agree to the terms above or want to later cancel this authorization, I must submit to the Campus Business Affairs Office a complete form BRSR 002, Termination of Authorization to Deduct Allowable Charges from Federal Student Aid, which can be obtained on FSCJ's website. I understand that the BRSR 002 form will be effective from the date that it is received by FSCJ and is not retroactive. If a BRSR 002 is on file, I understand that a deferment of charges pending financial aid disbursement will not be available and that all charges including tuition and fees must be paid by me from my own resources.
